Elders at Dunbar Village commemorate COVID-19 anniversary with pinata

BY CASSANDRA FAVRE
STAFF WRITER

The elders at Dunbar Village in Bay St. Louis on Monday commemorated the one-year anniversary of the COVID-19 lockdown taking turns hitting a COVID-19 shaped piñata.

Dunbar Village therapist Pamela Williams said that Monday's celebration was "more of what we have to look forward to and hopefully soon to be opening our doors back up and bringing some normalcy back to the elders and their families."

"It's been a long hard year for everyone," she said. "Elders, care partners, administrators and all that. We're really praying for a return to normalcy soon."

Cindy Ward, chaplain for Notre Dame Hospice, led the elders in a prayer service.

Ward also asked the elders and staff to take a moment to remember and honor those who lost their lives to COVID-19.

Ward said that the good news is that the light at the end of the tunnel is now visible.

"We have a vaccine," she said. "It's making

BY GEOFF BELCHER
GENERAL MANAGER

After a year’s hiatus due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Waveland Civic Association St. Patrick’s Day Parade is scheduled to roll this Sunday beginning at 1 p.m.

“I was very happy to announce that we could allow the parade to go on,” Waveland Mayor Mike Smith said. “I know that people are tired of being penned up indoors. ... I think we all are looking for a little bit of normalcy, and I’m really pleased to get the parade back to Waveland and Coleman Avenue. I’m happy we can continue this long-standing tradition, but do it in a safe manner.”

“The only thing that I would ask is that if you’re over the age of 18 and you have an underlying condition, please wear a mask when you’re in crowds.”

“It looks like we’re going to have a good day,” WCA President AJ Andres said Tuesday. “The weather’s gonna be nice and around 68 degrees with zero chance of rain.”

Andres said he’s excited to get the parade back on the streets this year.

Individuals ages 16 and older may receive the Pfizer vaccine, and those 18 and over can receive the Moderna vaccine, according to the MSDH website. Those under age 18 should see a physician or private medical provider, rather than visiting a drive-through site, according to the agency.

The one-dose Johnson & Johnson vaccine is also available in some areas.

MSDH operates free drive-through vaccinations sites in locations around the state. If you are 18 or older, please schedule your first-dose appointment online at <https://covidvaccine.umc.edu/>.

Pregnant women, lactating women and those who are immunocompromised may also take the vaccine, but are urged to consult with their healthcare providers before scheduling.

When you arrive for testing, expect vaccination and related paperwork to take about 10 minutes. There will also be a 15-minute observation period after vaccination.

While there is no free drive-through site in Hancock County this week, MSDH said limited quantities are available at Walgreen's and Waveland Pharmacy (228-463-1055) in Waveland, Coastal Family Health Center (228-374-4991) and Ochsner Medical Center- Hancock (1-877-339-2637) in Bay St. Louis and Pharmacy In Diamondhead (228-222-4662).

Coastal Family Health Center at 257 Davis Ave. in Pass Christian is also listed (228-374-4991); as is Highland Community Hospital (601-358-9457) in Picayune and Picayune Drug Co. Inc. (601-798-4846).

The Mississippi Coast Coliseum, 2350 Beach Blvd. in Biloxi, is still the closest drive-through site for Hancock County residents.

The Walmart pharmacies in Gulfport and Biloxi also have limited quantities of the vaccine available. You can make an appointment online at www.walmart.com/cp/1228302.

Some hospitals, private healthcare providers and pharmacies have also received COVID-19 vaccine distributed to them for administration to persons eligible in Mississippi. Contact a provider directly to find out about cost and the availability of appointments.

Boutte ultimately succumbed to his injuries. Rohrbacker has been receiving treatment for his injuries in Louisiana since the incident occurred.

At about 9 a.m. Tuesday, MBI special agents, with assistance from the Louisiana State Police, "arrested 30-year-old Rohrbacker without incident," Elkins said.

Rohrbacker is now being held at the Harrison County Adult Detention Center, Elkins said.

Under Mississippi statutes, conviction on a Capital Murder charge carries the possibility of a death sentence or a life sentence without possibility of parole.

the first parade to roll (in the county) this year,” he said.

Andres said that even though the COVID numbers have gone down since the vaccines began rolling out, the WCA is still taking the virus seriously.

“It will be a little bit longer this year, that way people can spread out more,” Andres said. “We’re talking about a four-mile parade route.”

The parade will start at Bienville, go down North Beach Boulevard, turn up Coleman Avenue to Central, then turn left on Central to Waveland Avenue, where it will disperse at the Ellwood Bourgeois Ballfield.

Line-up for parade participants will be between 10 and 10:30 a.m. at Bienville, Andres said.

The WCA kicked off the festivities a little early this past Friday with a “mini” parade down Coleman Avenue. During the event, the group officially named the Colleen for the 2021 parade and named the organization’s first-ever “Miss St. Paddy’s Day.”

The Colleen for the parade will be Maggie first-ever Miss St. Paddy’s Day in order to thank her for her tireless efforts in helping organize the organization’s events this year.

MEET BRUNO MARS
Yes, he is a big boy! But, along with his abundant girth, comes lots of love and sloppy kisses. Bruno is a 5 to 7 year old Labrador Retriever mix who loves to play fetch. This beefy boy is addicted to tennis balls, so his new family should be committed to daily playtime and walks, as well as keeping a stash of balls for his entertainment. Lol! He walks fairly well on a leash and harness, but at 75 lbs, when he catches a scent, be prepared for an adventure! Bruno is house trained and may even be crate trained. He would be a loyal companion for a single person, couple or active retirees. He could also join a family with older children, especially if they enjoy being outdoors, playing fetch with the family dog. He came into the shelter with a small breed dog, and he joins the other dogs in our play yard for fun and exercise, so he is dog friendly! However, he must NOT join a home with cats! If you think this handsome, beefy guy is just right for you and your family, please call our front desk at 228-466-4516 (Mon-Fri 10am-4pm) to schedule a meet-n-greet. Please bring your existing family dog(s) and children to the visit to ensure compatibility. Bruno has infinite love and fun to share with his forever family, and you will fall in love with this sweet boy.

Opinion

A trip in time

I think it’s safe to say that I can attribute my love of history to my junior high and high school history teacher, Ms. Carolyn Porter.

She retired from the Bay-Waveland School District many years ago now, so I’m grateful I was a student of hers.

Ms. Porter made learning about history, which can often be a bit boring, fun. She even incorporated some shorts from the show “School House Rock.”

I enjoyed history so much that I even minored in the subject in college. I also had some great professors at Ole Miss.

But, I do wish I could retain the wealth of information better. There is so much to be learned about the history of our world.

Since I’m no longer in school anymore, I find other avenues to satisfy my historical cravings.

I absolutely love watching historical dramas. Disclaimer here: Yes, I’m also smart enough to realize that these television shows are loosely based on historical events and should not be taken as absolute fact.

I recently binge-watched the first four seasons of the show “Outlander” on Netflix. I honestly couldn’t stop watching it. I’m even considering rewatching it until they release season five on the streaming service.

The show is based on a series of books by Diana Gabaldon. It’s about a British World War II nurse Claire Randall in 1945, who is visiting Scotland and then finds herself transported back to 1743.

She meets the dashing Scotsman Jamie Fraser and the story just takes off from there.

The cinematography is amazing and the Scottish Highlands are as much of a main character as Jamie and Claire.

One of the first major storylines involves the Jacobites and the impending Battle of Culloden.

Between episodes, I would do a little digging into the historical significance.

According to britannica.com, a Jacobite was a “supporter of the exiled Stuart king James II and his descendants after the Glorious Revolution.” The Jacobite movement was strong in Scotland and Wales and in support for a Roman Catholic monarch.

The Battle of Culloden, which is also known as the Battle of Dummossie, was the final battle for the Jacobites under Charles Edward Louis Philip Casimir Stuart, also known as Bonnie Prince Charlie, or the Young Pretender, the website states.

Culloden is located in the moorland in the county of Inverness, Scotland.

The battle lasted only 40 minutes. More than 1,000 of the Highlanders were killed by the 9,000 Redcoats, who lost 50 men, the website states.

“The devastating slaughter of the Jacobites was

MS House weekly summary - Week of March 8

This was the tenth week of the 2021 Legislative Session. Wednesday was the deadline for the House to discuss general Senate bills. Any Senate bills that did not make it off the calendar and before the House died. The deadline to discuss Senate appropriations and revenue bills will occur next Tuesday, March 16. More than 80 Senate bills were discussed on the floor, including the following:

Senate Bill 2765, or the Mississippi Medical Cannabis Act, was the source of much debate on the House floor this week. The bill would have created an alternative to the medical marijuana program in Initiative 65 that was voted on by Mississippians in November 2020. During discussion, several amendments were offered, and a few members raised points of order and other parliamentary inquiries. Eventually, SB 2765 was laid on the table, and the bill died on the calendar. Similar language to SB 2765 was added to “Harper Grace’s Law” (HB 119) in the Senate late on Thursday.

Another greatly debated bill in the House this week was Senate Bill 2727. The bill would have revised the way members of the board of the Department of Archives and History are chosen. Since its inception in 1902, board members have chosen their own successors in the seat, which are then subject to Senate confirmation. SB 2727 would have given board appointments to the governor and the lieutenant governor. The bill failed by a vote of 17-105.

Senate Bill 2119 would authorize the sale and purchase of pseudoephedrine and ephedrine in the state without a prescription. Since 2010, Mississippi has required a prescription to purchase medicines containing these stimulants. SB 2119 passed by a bipartisan vote of 117-3, and it has been sent to the governor for his signature. The House passed a similar bill (HB 479) earlier in the session, but it has since died in committee.

A few bills passed the House with unanimous support including a bill that would authorize a veteran to establish proof of military service for Veteran Driver’s License Designation in person at a DPS driver’s license station (SB 2294); a bill that would give the option to combine a concealed carry weapons permit with a driver’s license or other identification card (SB 2253); and a bill that would allow the Department of Education to grant teaching licenses to teachers who already possess the equivalent from another state (SB 2267).

The calendar also included several House bills that were passed earlier in the session, sent to the Senate and are now back before the House. With this process, the representatives will vote on whether to concur with the changes the Senate made, or to invite conference for possible further revisions before becoming law or dying.

Small in stature; giant in heart

My grandmother, Vivian Rosemond Singleton, was very small in stature, but she was/is an endearing giant in my eyes. She was the best grandmother anyone could want. I’ve so many positive memories of her. I share this painful memory of her humanity. As a young child, I attended daily mass with my grandmother at St. Rose de Lima Church, which was our Black parish church created during Jim Crow, at St. Augustine Seminary, and at Our Lady of the Gulf Church (OLGC). Accustomed to sitting in the front of the church at St. Rose, I proceeded forward at OLGC. She called me back to the rear seats. After mass, I asked her why. She explained to me that we had to sit in the back pews. Confused, I listened. She explained that she had been raised as a parishioner at OLGC. She received her early sacraments at OLGC, she was married in OLGC, and 4 of her children had been baptized there. She’d been a full-fledged member of OLGC, “until Jim Crow”. Not familiar with that term, I asked. She explained it as “segregation”. I understood. Her pain was understood. It hurt; she had been subordinated by her church, which demoralized her. It reduced her to less than, to second class. She knew it was morally wrong. Despite being relegated to the back of the church, my grandmother continued to attend mass at OLGC occasionally. I wonder if Jim Crow laws were the impetus for her challenges to racial injustice. Her strength of character was certainly a beacon for me and more than a few siblings. She spoke out against injustice and set the example for her grandchildren and for our community. My grandmother remains a giant in my eyes. I think of her often and miss her so much. She’s always in my heart.

Woman dies after BSL train accident

ECHO STAFF

Bay St. Louis officials learned over the weekend that a woman had died from injuries she suffered last week in Bay St. Louis after her car apparently stalled on the railroad crossing at Bookter Street.

The Bay St. Louis Police Department responded to the 200 block of Bookter “for a train vs. vehicle accident,” at around 6:58 p.m. last Wednesday, Police Chief Gary Ponthieux Jr. said in a statement issued Tuesday.

“A single female driver exited her vehicle in an attempt to flee the train’s path,” Ponthieux said. “The female was struck by her vehicle after it was struck by the train.”

The woman was transported to a local hospital for treatment, then later transferred to University Medical Center at New Orleans, Ponthieux said.

The Hancock County Coroner’s office on Saturday notified the Bay St. Louis Police Department on Saturday that the woman had died from her injuries.

“The name of th pedestrian is not being released at this time and cause of the accident is currently under investigation,” Ponthieux said.

the result of the opening British cannonade and subsequent tactics of the Redcoats during the attack of the Highlanders, when each British soldier, instead of attacking the Highlander directly in front of him, bayoneted the exposed side of the man to his right,” the website states. “The Highlanders finally broke and fled, and some 1,000 more were killed in subsequent weeks of hounding by British troops.”

The Bonnie Prince Charles escaped to exile in France.

The Battle of Culloden marked the end of the Jacobites’ attempt to restore the Stuart dynasty to the British throne.

After the rebellion, the British government, which viewed the area as the “lawless north,” passed the Acts of Proscription, military-history.org states.

“These represented nothing less than an attempt to dismantle the ancient clan structure,” the website states. “Highlanders were forbidden to carry weapons such as muskets, dirks, or the famous broadsword. Highland dress was outlawed. The playing of the bagpipes was banned. Prayers for the Hanoverian monarch and his family were imposed before school lessons every day. Fines, imprisonment, and exile awaited those clansmen who dared defy the new laws.”

The show does depict some of these historical events and outcomes, which evokes a whole lot of emotions. It angers me that the British decided they were in some way superior to the Highlanders. But, it does not surprise me.

I mean, look at our own American History, and the European’s treatment of the Native Americans and African Americans.

One thing I wish that humanity would learn from history is that no ethnicity or gender is better than another. It’s such a stupid concept.

Monarchs of old used to believe that their particular bloodline was chosen by God.

Britannica.com defines the Divine right of kings, in European history, as a “political doctrine in defense of monarchical absolutism, which asserted that kings derived their authority from God and could not therefore be held accountable for their actions by any earthly authority such as a parliament. Originating in Europe, the divine-right theory can be traced to the medieval conception of God’s award of temporal power to the political ruler, paralleling the award of spiritual power to the church.”

Even though we vote for our “leaders,” and I use that term loosely, some will use religion as a way to garner votes, which I find distasteful and manipulative.

Also, last I checked, we the people were free to worship as we choose. There is not and should not be one specific religion to rule them all.

The constitution states that “Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof;”

Sometimes when I look up these historical moments, I see several of the same parallels to modern times.

Some of our elected leaders like presidents and governors live in large mansions, apart from the public they serve. Oh sure, they make the rounds and visit places when disaster strikes. It provides the perfect photo opportunity.

But are they really in tune with the needs of the people? Maybe a select few like their voter base. But when elected to office, you are supposed to serve all, and make decisions based on the greater good, not how many votes you can garner in the next election.

Much like the monarchs of old, many of those in power sit in their “ivory towers” and make decisions with little to no thought of the consequences it may reap on their constituents.

I recently started “The Borgias” a drama inspired by Pope Alexander VI, Rodrigo Borgia, and his family. He served as Pope from 1492 to 1503.

According to Britannica.com, Borgia was known as a “corrupt, worldly, and ambitious pope, whose neglect of the spiritual inheritance of the church contributed to the development of the Protestant Reformation.”

He had several illegitimate children who he used by means of marriage and war to further political gains. He also had a mistress, Giulia Farnese.

Ah, the old phrase “do as we say, not as we do” comes to mind.

Many of the cardinals lived in palaces and, of course, the Pope resided in the ornate Vatican, whilst the people of Rome lived in extreme poverty, but were still asked to tithe.

One thing I don’t believe in is using religion to manipulate and control people or to further your own political or personal gains.

I look at places like mega churches and then in stark contrast, our homeless populations. Mega churches do not scream humility nor does using tithes to build grand churches help the poor and needy.

I mean, the Bible states in Proverbs 19:17, “Whoever is kind to the poor lends to the Lord, and he will reward them for what they have done.”

So, let’s try that instead. Instead of mega churches, let’s build homeless shelters, soup kitchens, mental health facilities, and employment agencies. Let’s help people get ahead instead of watching from afar, thinking how much better we are because our life’s circumstances differ.

We must learn from history and do better.

If roses grow in Heaven, Lord please pick a bunch for me and place them in my mother's arms and tell her they are from me. Tell her I love her and miss her, and when she turns to smile, place a kiss upon her cheek and hold her for a while. When will the last call be?

BY GARY ANDREWS

How many of us ever think that today could be our last day on earth? Probably not many.

As the year 2020 ended I lost a dear friend to the tragic virus COVID-19. In the first few days of 2021 I lost another good friend due, as I was told, to a heart attack. I would be willing to say that neither one of them thought on that particular day they were going to their eternal home.

Both men were strong physically and mentally. They had good homes, with loving families. Knowing both as I did, they knew Jesus personally, but they did enjoy living life here on earth.

We are told in the gospel of Matthew 24:36, "But of that day and hour no one knows, not even the angels of heaven, but My Father only." So many of us take life for granted and expect to live forever.

All one must do is read the obituaries in the newspapers, on social media or listen to local radio stations to realize how many people are taken away from this earth every day. All of us need to think about how this nation is turning away from God and following worldly values that will lead us to destruction.

The words of 2 Timothy 3:1-7 tells of what is happening in today's society. It says that it will be perilous times. People will be lovers of themselves, money, boasters, proud, blasphemers, and unthankful. It also tells of children being disobedient to parents, unloving, unforgiving, slanderers, lack of self-control, traitors and much more. It also says that people will have some form of godliness but denying God's power.

We all know people like this and most of us will not speak up against their corruption. We tend to look the other way and let lies and deception slide by. I am sickened by some of our leaders and a deceitfulness taking place in our government. I am appalled at some of the news stations on television and the way they mislead their audiences with untruths. This is not only happening on a national level but on local levels as well. Even some of our churches find it hard to talk about the saving grace of Jesus because it might offend someone.

Our family units are breaking down due to lack of discipline and family time spent together. Our community is raising a lot of latch key kids and the outcome is not for the best. They are learning from people as portrayed in Timothy instead of the loving care and teaching in homes with Godly parents.

I have been thoroughly blessed because I was raised by Godly parents and grandparents. My wife and I tried our best to raise our children in a Christian environment and we have been thoroughly blessed. All of them are married, have children, and raising them in a Christian environment also.

All of us need to be ready because we do not know when we will be called to our eternal home. Hopefully, all of you that read this knows Jesus personally and will spend eternity with Him.

My two friends did not know that their last day would come so soon. I do know that both spoke of their salvation experience and I pray that they are sitting at the feet of Jesus praising Him at this time.

This is a sinful world, and it will lead you straight to Hades if you allow that to happen. We need to speak up against the corruption going on and spread the good news of Jesus to anyone that will listen to us.

If you do not know Jesus personally, I pray that you will open your heart and accept Him today as your personal Savior. Who knows what tomorrow holds or even if we will be a part of it?

Shore Thing: Work first, then fish

"Cat Island" Chris Walters.

It was a very chaotic couple of days. We had our first overnight trip to Cat Island the first week of March. It was Lil early, we typically start our overnights in April. The crew was up for it, but there was a few things that needed to happen before the customers arrived.

"Cat Island Chris", the care taker, needed a radiator for the generator delivered ASAP. Also, we have been trying to get the guys from "Duck Camp" out there. Duck Camp is a high end outdoor clothing line, that also has a TV show spotlighting unique camps, lodges and now island houses.

Shore Thing Fishing Report

By Capt. Sonny Schindler

We had one shot to deliver supplies, make repairs, and shoot the show. Thursday I met Jerrod and Kelly at Pass Harbor, to load all their gear. I also had literally a "boat load" of Groceries, supplies and a new radiator. The weather was decent, and we made our way across.

Chris was waiting on us at the Cat Island house. We unloaded everything, and went to work installing the new radiator. Luckily, the installation was quick and without issues.

We took a short boat ride to get a little footage, but didn't do anything on the fishing side of things. Chris saved the day, and wrangled up a mess of crabs, for his famous Cat Island Seafood boil. I had to run back in to see my daughters soccer game that evening.

The next morning I was up VERY early, and after a million stops for bait, fuel, and last minute junk, I made it back to the island. We only had an hour or so, to get our fish for the show. The winds were howling, and we had to tuck inside a protected bayou. Luckily, The early morning quest for live shrimp paid off. We were able to grab some sheephead and redfish, with almost no time to spare.

Jarrod was flying his drone, and getting his last minute video footage while we were heading in. It was a buzzer beater, and this was all before the customers arrived!!! It truly was a group effort, and everyone pitched in to make it work. There is plenty of fun to be had at the "Duck Camp" or "Island House", but you still have to put in the work there too.

As always, have fun and be safe

All three of these teams tied for First Place during our Christmas Scramble.

BY SHIRLEY HALTERMAN

Temperatures in the low 30s caused us to cancel our regularly scheduled golf for Tuesday, December 1st. Guess you will have to classify us as "fair weather golfers" either that or living down South we have become spoiled and prefer good weather.

Our Annual Christmas Scramble was scheduled for Tuesday, December 8th. We played the back nine of the Pine Course. Our round was followed by a lovely and tasty lunch in the East Ballroom. Thirty-one gals turned out to play even though it was a bit chilly. Several others joined us for the luncheon and toy collection for needy children. I guess we are all beginning to play similar games as three teams tied for 1st Place in this competition. The following teams tied for 1st Place each having a score of 41: Sue Hebert, Betsy Lions, Cheryl Saak and a Ghost; Susan Fontenot, Jerry Ingram, Gale Lammers and Therese Mauterer; and Kathy Jones, Tammy Lippon, Mary Murray and Judy Tauzin. Our Second Place winners also showed a tie with two teams scoring the same 42: Sylvia Corban, Marilyn Galus, Jeri Harris and Dinah Knobloch and the team of Pattie Blackwood, Cynthia Michael, Fran Smith and a Ghost. We also honored Anne Nutting as our Most Improved Player of 2020.

Only ten gals were brave enough to come out to play on a chilly December 15th. The game of the day was Par Threes & Par Fives on the Back Nine of the Pines Course. During this game you only report the scores on Par Three holes and Par Five holes. And, our winners were: Flight 1 = Tony Rossol, Flight 2 = Nancy Sislow, Flight 3 = Dinah Knobloch, and for the Black Flight = Carol Wyrosdick. We had a tie for Low Putts with both Nancy Sislow and Fran Smith recording only 16 putts. Maria Castelluci had a Chip-In on hole #18.

On Tuesday, December 22nd, our game was "Putter + 2". This round is played with two clubs of your choice plus your putter (only a total of three clubs). This game is challenging so choose your clubs wisely. We will also play an optional "Low Putts" game for those who choose to play it is an extra $1.00. In the First Flight the winners were: 1st Place = Therese Mauterer and 2nd Place = Sue Hebert. The Second Flight winners were: 1st Place = Cheryl Saak and 2nd Place = Dinah Knobloch. The Black Flight winners were: 1st Place = Carole Griffin and 2nd Place = Carol Wyrosdick. The winners in the Low Putts competition were: Fran Smith (1st Flight), Kathy Jones (2nd Flight) and Jeri Harris (Black Flight). It should also be noted that Carole Griffin scored a Chip-In on Hole #4.

Our final competition for 2020 was held on December 29th. The game was a Shamble which means each team tees off and takes the best drive. This day's game was played on the back 9 of the Cardinal Course. After that, each player plays their own game. At the end of the competition, each team's score is totaled to determine the winners. And, the winning teams were:

She was preceded in death by her husbands, Robert L. Haynes and Charles F. "Manie"

Schwartz; her grandson, Michael King; and her sister, Joyce Stigemeier.

Josie is survived by her daughters, Marietta Schwartz Huling of Ocala, FL, Yvonne Schwartz, of Gulfport, MS; her adopted daughter, Missy Overhue of Kiln, MS; her grandson, Gregory Huling (Karen) of Summerfield, FL; her great grandchildren, Cole and Ashley Huling; her sister, Ruth Haas and family of Kiln, MS; and many nieces, nephews, cousins, and numerous friends. She also left behind her constant companions; her dogs, Bo and Bandit and her cats, Smokey, Patches, and Baby, who are all lost without her.

She will always be loved and although we will miss her every second, we know she is now at peace and Heaven has definitely gained a fantastic Angel.

Thank you to Karen-Home Hospice and Shannon with Total Health Care for the wonderful service and excellent care you provided during Moher's final days.

Saturday, March 6, 2021, at RIEMANN FAMILY FUNERAL HOME, 11280 Three Rivers Road, Gulfport, with a visitation from 9:00 AM until the service. Interment will follow at Bayou Caddy Cemetery, Lakeshore, MS.
